Why do you want to be an NRA Certified Instructor/RSO ?

Please give a brief description of your shooting history.

Course _____ Date _____ Fee _____

All Instructor Candidates need to be familiar with the NRA basic shooting materials for the discipline they wish to instruct. For instance, Rifle Instructors should be familiar with terms like “bone support.” All instructors should know what NPA is or how to determine eye dominance. If you are unsure, you may want to participate in a basic course. At the minimum, all Instructor Candidates need to obtain the basic student book for their discipline.

Make checks payable to LRN2shoot inc. and send to PO Box 87592 Carol Stream, IL. 60188. Payments need to be in my PO box by the due date.

Any questions please contact me at jappleby@LRN2shoot.com or 630-664-4042

The goal of a good Training Counselor is to help enthusiastic experienced shooters Become NRA Certified Instructors

Instructor Candidate Training Agreement

Persons participating in a National Rifle Association Instructor Course conducted by NRA Appointed Training Counselor James Appleby with the intent of becoming NRA Certified Instructors are considered and will be referred to as Instructor Candidates. The NRA certifies instructors based on the successful completion of the instructor course and the endorsement of the NRA Appointed Training Counselor conducting the course. It is the primary intent of NRA Appointed Training Counselor James Appleby to assist any Instructor Candidate to reach the highest possible endorsement for instructor certification within reasonable limits set by James Appleby and the standards set forth by the NRA. Instructor Candidates are not guaranteed the endorsement of NRA Appointed Training Counselor James Appleby.

Requirements for Endorsement

- Arrive on time and prepared for the course.
- Have all course fees paid in full in advance.
- Show proficiency of Skills and Knowledge in the discipline for which you wish to be a NRA Certified Instructor.
- Complete Basic Instructors Exam and the Discipline specific exam with a score of 90% for NRA Certified Instructor and 85% for Assistant or Apprentice Instructor.
- Possess the appropriate Attitude at all times.
- Be prepared to submit Instructor Application with appropriate fees to the NRA upon course completion.
- Attend the course in its entirety and attend any additional training deemed necessary by James Appleby or assisting staff.

It is solely at the discretion of the NRA Appointed Training Counselor James Appleby/LRN2shoot to endorse

Instructor Candidates for certification. It is also at the discretion of James Appleby/LRN2shoot as to what degree candidates will participate in training in order to earn the endorsement for Instructor Certification. NRA appointed Training Counselor James Appleby/LRN2shoot reserves the right to expel anyone from a course at any time for any reason as deemed necessary. Failing to gain endorsement for Instructor Certification, being expelled from a course or failure to attend the course are not grounds for receiving a refund or credit towards future courses.

In the event James Appleby/LRN2shoot is not able to conduct a scheduled course due to events and situations beyond his control (e.g. weather, fire etc.), refunds and/or credits will be given at the sole discretion of James Appleby.
